Class History

Thirteen of the forty-six students of the Class of 1960 have been classmates since kindergarten days. These thirteen are: Joel Berner, Joyce Brooks, Becky Engle, Betty French, Judy Krump, Dona Campe, John King, Sandra Monken, Richard Neal, Richard Ogden, Carol Rutherford, Judy Cotts, and Janet Widicus.

In September of 1947 thirty-eight of us entered kindergarten. Mrs. Lillian Mendenhall taught us in two shifts--morning and afternoon.

With Mrs. Leona Beck as our first grade teacher we gained eighteen pupils including Margaret Nunn and Jo Ann Johnson who stayed with us until the end of our Junior year. Our gains and losses this year jiggled themselves so that we numbered thirty-two.

While the years were rushing by we were already in the second grade with Mrs. Florence Ditterline and Miss Marjorie Dawes as teachers. Some joined us and some left for various reasons, but none of those who joined us this year remained to graduate with us.

Because of our large class, fifty-two to be exact, we were again divided into two classes. Mrs. Beatrice Jones and Mrs. Dorothy Winterrowd piloted us through the third grade.

Because of the opening of St. Joseph's Parochial School, six of our number failed to appear with us in the fourth grade. But others were on hand to make our number swell; among these were Phyllis Ozment who completed grade and high school with us.

With a gain of four and a loss of several we presented ourselves to Mrs. Jo Ann Simpson and Mrs. Margaret See in the fifth grade. Not one of the pupils who joined us at this point graduated with us.

In the sixth grade Vonzetta Fielding joined us as we joined Mrs. Virginnia Holten.

As we entered the seventh grade we came face to face with our first male teacher, Mr. Lester Haury. Of the several who joined us only Ann Walker remained with us to the bitter end.

When we graduated from the eighth grade there were twenty-nine of us, quite a drop from the thirty-eight who began kindergarten together. We have Mr. Rayburn Fox to thank for guiding us through the eighth grade and preparing us for high school.

In the fall of 1956 fifty-four students entered as freshmen. Our gains were Robert Berkemann, Claude and Gerome Berry, Forchia Cambell, Tom Clark, Lavon Combs, Rosemary Faitz, Allan Frerking, Earl Harpstrite, Earl Hock, Richard Klein, Donald Koenig, Ronald Kombrink, Susan Lutz, Jerry Meyer, Robert Meyer, Sharon Myers, Phyllis Ruth, Beverly Schroer, Marvin Schulte.

In the fall of 1956 fifty-four students entered Lebanon Community High School as freshmen. Dona Campe became freshman attendant to the queen. Dick Ogden, Rich Neal, Earl Harpstrite, Earl Hock, and William Royston played Junior Varsity basketball for Coach Irvil Rogers.

During our Sophomore year Becky and Terry won the trophy for their pantomime in the Student Council Talent Show. Ann Walker was chosen sophomore attendant to the queen.

Time was passing quickly, and soon we were Juniors. Dick Ogden, Rich Neal, and Earl Hock played varsity basketball. Judy Cotts was the Junior attendant at the Queen's Party. Ann Hohrein, Betty French, and Becky Engle won first place in the Student Council Talent Show. We presented a play, "Keep It Under Your Hat," and we prepared for the prom.

The summer vacation passed quickly for most of us, and the big day was finally here. We were Seniors! Everyone started making plans to decorate the freshmen. We were mean during the day, but we made up for it that night with a party in their honor. Betty French was chosen editor of the Cedarian, and Mary Putt became editor of the Greyhound. Susan was crowned the all-school queen. We gave a Christmas party and a play. Rich Neal, Dick Ogden, Allan Frerking, and Joel Berner were our representatives on the "Greyhounds."

Our last year has been a great one, and we hope everyone enjoys their school days as much as we have.

Teachers in high school besides Coach Rogers include Mr. Klube, Mr. Merideth, Mr. Adolphson, Mr. Daigh, Mr. Dake, Mr. Beggs, Mrs. Wicks, Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Lientz, Mrs. Swigert, Mrs. Gutekunst, Mrs. Heck, Mr. Schanz, Mr. Stroud, Mr. Rigdon, Mrs. Neal, and Mr. Wright.

The Will

We, the Senior Class of 1960, being of sound mind and in full possession of our faculties, do feel necessitated to leave to posterity our many gifts, abilities, and accomplishments.

I, Robert Berkemann, will my grades in agriculture to Carl Loyet.
I, Joel Berner, will my ability to make people laugh to Roger Kadell.
I, Everett Bohenstiehl, will my excellent hair-do to Ralph Ochs.
I, Joyce Brooks, will my unsurpassed skill at shorthand to Jerilyn Thomas.
I, Terry Burk, will my excess dance steps to Jim Neil and Diane Poole. Have Fun!
I, Dorla Campe, leave my cheerleading skirt to Ginger Ogden.
I, Lavon Combs, will my love of peanuts to anyone who is hungry.
I, Jim Cope, will my short, short P.E. shorts to Ralph Ochs.
I, Judy Cotts, will my "hoody" personality to Barry Richards and Dave Bristow.
I, Becky Engle, will my ability to dance, and my quiet ways to Dave Bristow.
I, Rosemary Faitz, leave my driving ability to Darlene Faitz.
I, Vonzetta Fielding, will my old library passes to my sister, Veronica.
I, Betty French, will my driving ability to Jane Bunge.
I, Allan Frerking, leave my modest ways to Ginger Ogden.
I, Earl Harpstrite, leave my ability to judge beef cattle to L. J. Harms.
I, Ann Hohrein, will my mischievous personality and ability to dance to Dean Faitz.
I, John King, will my ability to understand electronics to Francis Richardson.
I, Richard Klein, will my Hollywood mufflers to Gary Haas.
I, Donald Koening, will my ability to judge beef cattle to Lewis Dunning.
I, Judith Krump, will ten pounds of my excess weight to Joyce Meyer. Good luck!
I, Susan Lutz, will my reign as all-school queen to the most deserving junior girl.
I, Jerry Meyer, will my ability with the girls to Ralph Ochs.
I, Robert Meyer, will my extraordinary mechanical ability to Gary Haas.
I, Sandra Monken, will my vollyball team (0-10) to Jerilyn Thomas. Better luck!
I, Ann Mueller, will my nickname, "Pudge" to anyone with a sense of humor.
I, Sharon Myers, will my nickname, "Tela" to Marvadell Zeeb.
I, Richard Neal, will my dirty gym shoes to Paul Dombroski.
I, Stanley Nunn, will my ability to clean test tubes to Doris Edwards.
I, Dick Ogden, have nothing that I want to get rid of, so I will keep it all.
I, Phyllis Ozment, will my ability to shoot baskets in P. E. to Katherine Moore.
I, Mary Putt, will my "nose for news," and good luck to the next editor of the Greyhound.
I, Dave Rawlings, will my many abilities to Jack Pfeffer and Bob Cope.
I, William Royston, will my ability to talk myself out of situation to Kenny Willis.
I, Carol Rutherford, will my cluttered locker to Marvadell Zeeb.
I, Phyllis Ruth, leave my excess energy to Barry Richards.
I, Beverly Schroer, will my freckles to those who are unfortunate not to have any.
I, Marvin Schulte, will my ability to annoy librarians to Alfred Hartig.
I, Mary Lou Schaffer, will my bookkeeping classes to my sister.
I, Ed Streif, will my ability to stay awake in class to Barry, "Droopy" Richards.
I, Judy Trame, will my seat in American History to Anna Mae Fohne.
I, Bob Vaninger, will my height to Jim Frierdich.
I, Dorothy Votrain, will my tiny feet to Diane Marriot.
I, Ann Walker, will my raggy cheerleading pom-poms to whomever can recondition them.
I, Janet Widicus, leave my gum wrappers to Gail Monken.
I, Dorris Wilcox, will my place at the end of the lunch line to my brother, Rocky.
I, Ellen Wilder, leave all my hair curlers and bobby pins to Dave Bristow.

Signed and sealed this twenty-seventh day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty.

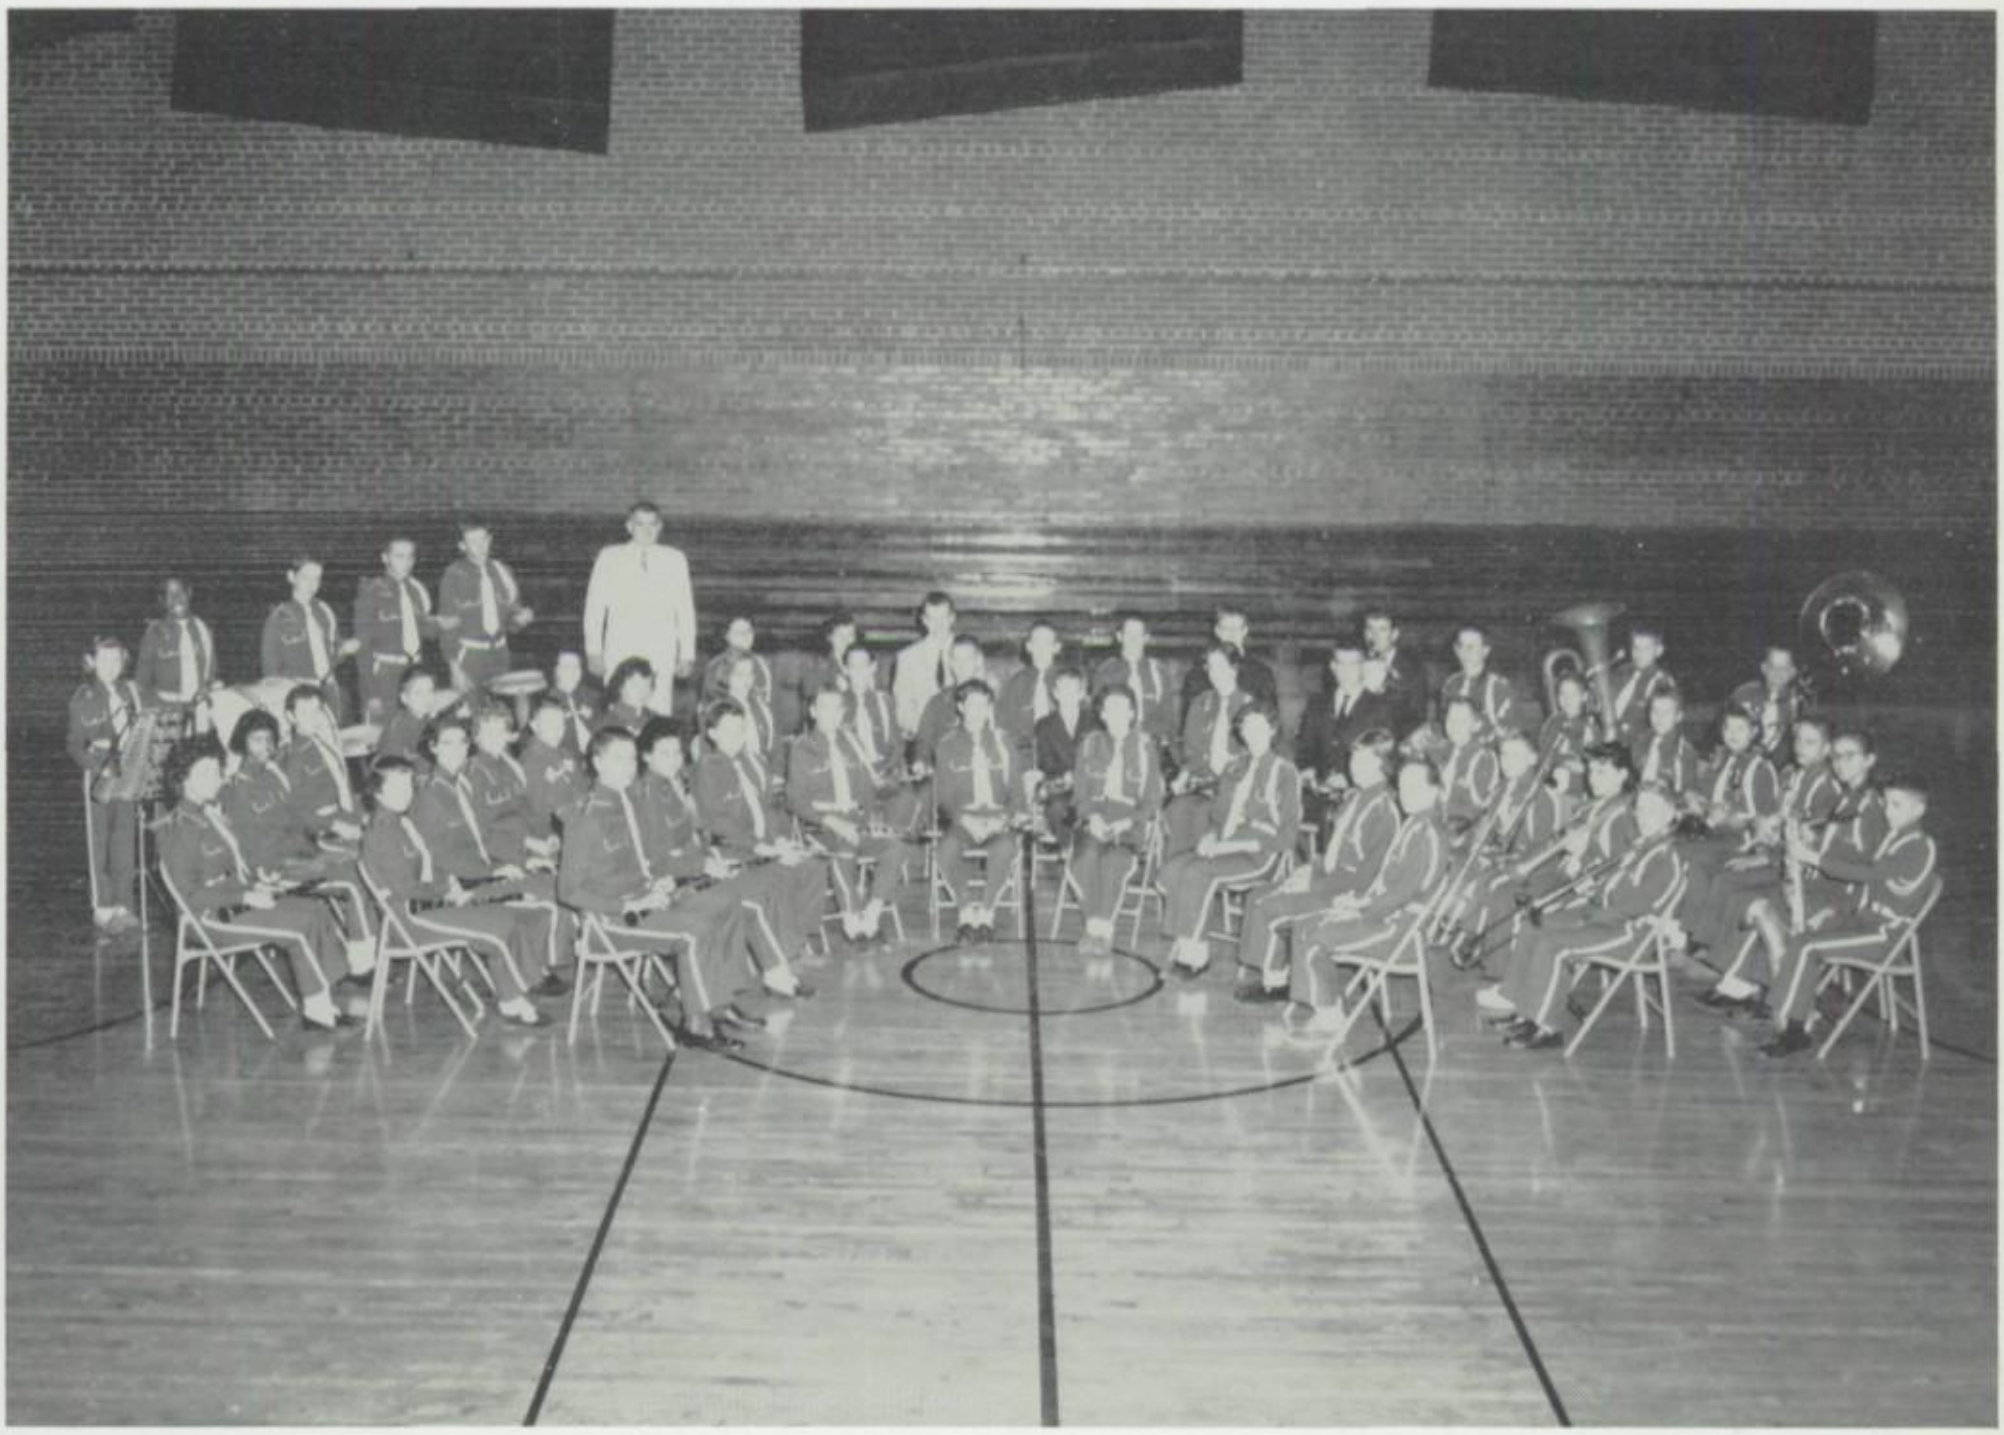
Chorus

Band



The chorus and band presented their annual Christmas concert on December 13.

Among their many accomplishments, were their participation in the County Music Festival and the Spring Concert. Both are annual events.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of girls and boys studying homemaking in all high schools. The goal of the club is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living, now and in the future. The program of work is based on personal, family, and community needs.

The Future Homemakers of America was organized this year under the supervision of Mrs. Kruh.

The club gave a bake sale and a sock hop this past year.

F.F.A.

During the past year the Lebanon F.F.A. boys have been very active. Earl Harpstrite attended the state convention where he received his state farmer degree. Lebanon placed first in land, grain, and poultry judging and had the first individual in each contest.

Earl Harpstrite, Sylvester Korte, and Robert Henss were the members of the first in the state dairy judging contest. The team participated in the national contest and received a bronze medal.

Under the expert guidance of Mr. Daigh, the instructor, the F.F.A. boys are a valuable asset to L.C.H.S. The officers of the F.F.A. are as follows: President, Earl Harpstrite; Vice-President, Robert Berkemann; Secretary, Donald Koening; Treasurer, Robert Vaninger; Reporter, Sylvestor Korte; Sentinel, Harvey Harpstrite.

1959 Junior-Senior Prom

The Lebanon Community High School was transformed into an oriental splendor for the junior-senior prom on May 2. The theme, "Pink Pagoda," was effectively carried out.

The entrance was decorated with panels covered with butterflies and Japanese writing. In the center of the refreshment table was a beautiful floral arrangement of shaggy chrysanthemums and green foliage accented with twigs of cherry blossoms.

The walls and ceiling to the ballroom were covered with complimentary shades of pink crepe paper.

In the south end of the gym was the center of attraction--a pink pagoda trimmed in gold and black. Colorful lanterns were hung in the doorway. An arched bridge led from the pagoda to a Shinto shrine filled with purple iris. White trees with pink cherry blossoms completed the effect of the miniature oriental garden.

The orchestra pit was decorated in black and gold. Juniors, seniors, and their guests danced to the music of the Jack Voland Trio.

Four white columns were enhanced by pink flowering twigs.

White panels on the west wall again accented the flowering twigs.

Gold disks featuring black Japanese characters highlighted the north wall.

An oriental floral arrangement was the centerpiece on each table. Miniature umbrellas and programs with Japanese writing completed the table decoration.

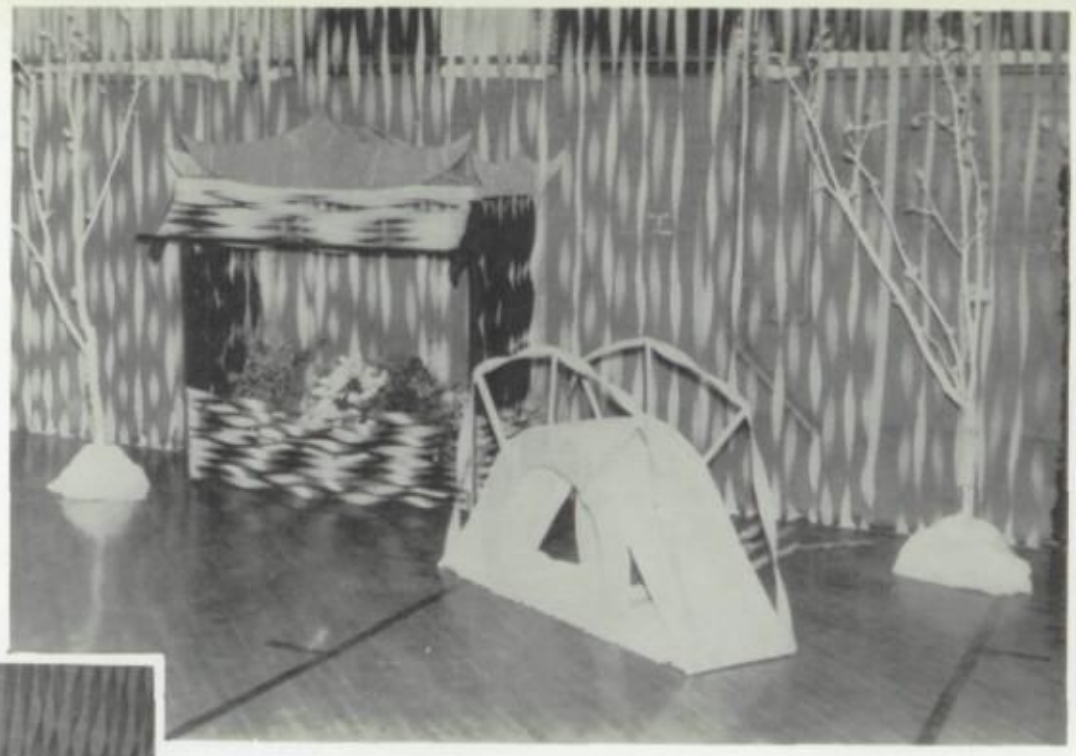
Colorful Japanese lanterns carried out the oriental atmosphere.

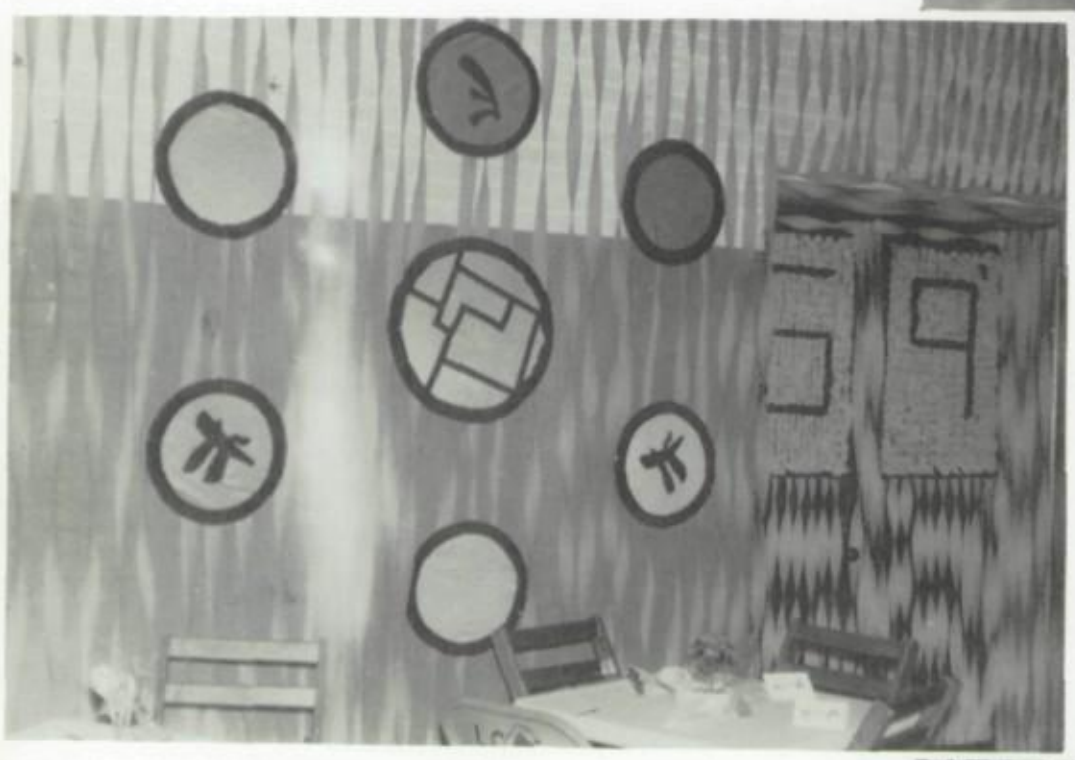
The refreshments, cake and pink punch, were served by eight freshmen wearing costumes from the Far East.

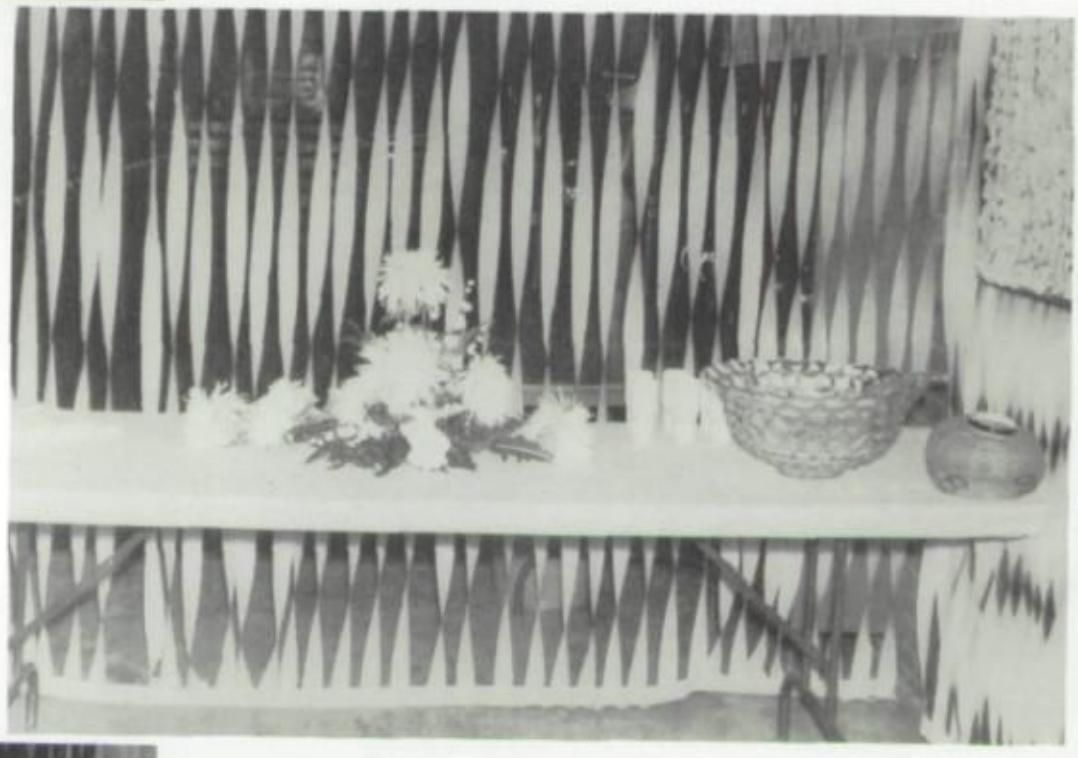
Ann Hohrein, Junior class president, gave the welcoming speech while Carolyn Koehler, Senior class president, made the response. The prophecy of the class of '59 was read by Ann; Carolyn read the will.

A Princess of the Orient was chosen from the names of the senior girls. A bracelet was presented to the Princess, Gloria Harms.

During intermissions the theme was continued by playing records from the movie, "Sayonara."







Queen's Party

"Song-in-my-Heart" was the theme of the Fifth Annual All-School Queen's Party, which was held on November 7 in the new gym.

Freshman attendant to the queen was Earlene Faitz. Her escort was Earl Harpstrite.

The attendant from the Sophomore Class was Virginia Ogden escorted by Jim Cope.

Representing the Junior Class was Jane Bunge, escorted by Robert Berkemann.

Maids of Honor were Ann Hohrein, escorted by Terry Burk; and Ann Walter, escorted by Richard Neal.

Special Maid of Honor was Judy Cotts. Dick Ogden escorted Judy.

The crowning of Susan Lutz as All-School Queen by Kay Monken Gaut, the retiring queen, was the highlight of the evening.

Allan Frerking served as emcee, and John King as music director.

Music was furnished by the Jack Voland trio. The Student Council sponored the party.
